Conscious Living

*The Fundamental Things **

To live is to experience life at its fullest, precisely, completely. This can only be done moment to moment. Any attention elsewhere, be it the glory of the past or the anticipation of the future takes one away from the present moment.

We experience life by contrast. Awakening is embracing the seeming contrast between phenomena: hot and cold, pain and pleasure, gain and loss, fame and shame. Life comprises all of it. Awareness means knowing that within each phenomenon lies the seed of its opposite as depicted in the symbol for Tao

The hibiscus below only blooms for three days maximum. It does not have any noticeable fragrance. After it opens, it closes itself at night. After three days, it closes again closing itself like a bud, dries up and falls off. Its cycle as a flower is done.

On the other hand, when the gardenia below flowers, the flowers stay open day and night until it falls off.. two weeks, maybe less.

During daylight, you can see the beauty as well as smell the fragrance which cannot be replicated by chemical means. Many have tried.

It stays open at night and still gives off the fragrance.

The hibiscus flowers very fast after planting. On the other hand, the gardenias take years after planting to give flowers.

The hibiscus does not try to be a gardenia, the gardenia does not try to be a hibiscus. They just are, sharing their beauty and fragrance with all. They are unique by themselves.

Awareness of and respect for one's own uniqueness are vital tools towards the journey of knowing ones self.

That which you love to do is what is best for you to pursue.

Commentary

Everything goes in cycles: the seasons, water, crops, businesses.

To Everything There is a Season Ecclesiastes 3

1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

The Excellence in God's Works

9 What profit has he that works in that wherein he labors?

10 I have seen the travail, which God has given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He has made every thing beautiful in his time: also he has set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God makes from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that, whatever God does, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God does it, that men should fear before him.

15 That which has been is now; and that which is to be has already been; and God requires that which is past.

From Dust to Dust

16 And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in my heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 For that which befalls the sons of men befalls beasts; even one thing befalls them: as the one dies, so dies the other; yes, they have all one breath; so that a man has no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knows the spirit of man that goes upward, and the spirit of the beast that goes downward to the earth?

22 Why I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him? ~ Bible, King James Version

We are in this world to experience life. Business is only one part of Life. It is true, we need to earn a living for the maintenance of our well being, but how much do we need?

Our needs are finite, our desires are never ending and the world as we perceive it, is fleeting.

*Thus shall you think of all this fleeting world:
A star at dawn, a bubble
in a stream;
A flash of lightning in a summer cloud,
A flickering lamp, a phantom, and a dream.*

~ Diamond Sutra

Therefore, do not worry about anything Luke 12 : 22-34

"The divine ruling principle makes all things work together for good, but for the good of the whole. The highest good of man is consciously to work with God for the common good, and this is the sense in which the Stoic tried to live in accord with nature. In the individual it is virtue alone which enables him to do this; as Providence rules the universe, so virtue in the soul must rule man." ~ Marcus Aurelius
